DURGA PUJA- 2006

দুর্গাপূজা-১৪১৩

Debipokher Agomoney Maa er Abhirbhav
Mrinmoyee Rupe

With the beginning of Debipokhkho Maa durga appears on this earth in her earthly form

When the month of Ashwin appears on the Hindu calendar ushering the onset of Autumn (sarat rihitu) all the Bengalis around the globe become cheerful & rejuvenated because it means the celebration of Durga Puja is approaching. Young and Old, male and female are exalted because for some its school holidays, for some time to prepare and enjoy traditional Bengali delicacies. Some look forward to making rounds in numerous puja pandols and prolonged adda sessions, some are busy going through their new saris, clothes and jewellery, some for going back to their roots but all wake up to the beating of dhak and immersing ourselves in the spirit of Durga puja- a celebration of happiness, togetherness and lots and lots more. We the Bengalis in Hong Kong, are not any different from our fellow brethren as we celebrate the 8th year of Durga Puja by HKBA.

Yaa Devi Surva Bhuteshu Shakti Roopena Samasthitha
Namastasyai namastasyai namastasyai namo namah

My salutations to that Devi who is the source of energy in all embodied soul

Ma Durga the mother-creatix is Maha Kali, Maha Saraswati, from her both the male and female entities have evolved, she is the cosmic power, our whole universe and she had delivered this world from everything evil and demonic. Let us all with folded hands and absolute reverence surrender ourselves before her and pray so that she makes this world free of misery and sorrow, natural calamities, cruelty of the war, global terrorism, individual selfishness and jealousy, poverty and sickness. May this world become a beautiful place for all of us and for our forthcoming generation with the blessing of Ma Durga.

I , on behalf of HKBA Puja committee, would like to take this opportunity to thank every one for their help with this year's Durga Puja decorations as well as with Puja itself.

I would like to extend HKBA's heartfelt thanks to Hindu Association for offering their premises to hold our celebration. I am also thankful to various business organizations, HKBA members and other individuals, who whole heartedly have supported this celebration through donations, sponsorship and advertisements along with their blessings and best wishes.

On behalf of HKBA Puja Committee, I would like to wish all the HKBA members, their families and involved Indian communities be endowed with health, happiness, peace and prosperity. Let us come forward to celebrate this auspicious occasion with all devotions, love and gaiety.

Sarba Mangal Mangalye Shibe Sarbartha Saddhike.

DURGA PUJA – THE INDIAN MYTHOLOGY AND OUR TRADITION

Durga Puja, the grandest festival of the Bengalis, has outgrown its national boundaries. We worship Devi Durga, mother goddess, in the form of 'SHAKTI' (divine power). She was born in the ashram of Rishi Kattayan. Thus, she was named as Kattayani.

'Durga Puja' is celebrated twice in a year. Known as 'Basanti Puja', it is celebrated in the month of March-April (spring season). The Sharadiya Durga Puja is worshipped in the month of September-October (autumn season). This follows from the 'AKALBODHAN' (untimely worship) ---- Lord Ramachandra's puja of the divine deity.

We welcome 'Devi Durga', to the earth as a member of our family. She visits her parents' home for four days, along with her four children Ganesh, Laxmi, Kartik and Saraswati. She returns to her husband's heavenly abode on Vijaya Dashami.

According to Indian mythology, the King of Asuras was blessed by Lord Bramha with a power that no man or deity could kill him. Consequently, he along with his battalion of demons, started terrorizing the regions of heaven and earth. Finally the Gods unitedly appealed to Lord Shiva, Lord Bramha and Lord Vishnu, to do something for their protection. Their combined potency evolved "Devi Durga", in the form of Shakti. The heavens were illuminated by her sparkling glow. She was armed with Vishnu's discus, Shiva's trident, Varuna's conch shell, Agni's flaming dart, Varuna's bow, Surya's arrow, Yama's iron rod, Indra's thunder bolt, Kubera's club, Shesha's snake and Lion from Himalayas. After a fierce battle with Mahisasura, Devi subdued him and pierced his chest. She then became Mahisasura Mardini.

The ritual of painting the eyes on the image of goddess, is done on the new moon Mahalaya day, known as 'Chakshudaan'. The 'Pran' or life of the Devi is implanted through the medium of a banana plant known as 'Kolabou'.

In the Ramayana, Lord Ramachandra sought the blessings of Devi Durga, before marching towards Lanka, to rescue his wife Sita from Ravana. As a ritual to please her, the puja needed 108 lotuses. Lord Rama could arrange only 107 lotuses. He offered one of his eyes to make it 108. He was blessed by Devi. Ravana was defeated and killed on "Sandhikshan" that is the crossing time of Ashtami and Navani. Ravana was cremated the next day on Dashami. We also celebrate Vijaya for peace and prosperity.

Ma Durga

When a young child requires comfort,
And desires from this cruel world a shelter,
When he needs someone to soothe the hurt,
There is one to whom he turns: his mother.

And thus when Mahishasur havoc did wreak
in Heaven and Earth, invincible to god and man,
Some respite Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva did seek,
"If we can't defeat him," they thought, "who can?"

The gods conferred and came together,
And they crafted the perfect female form,
Not just the sum of her parts, but better,
Our saviour at last - Ma Durga was born!

Then one by one, they gave her their arms,
Bestowing upon her their greatest powers,
Riding her lion, she arrived with graceful charm,
To deliver the universe from its darkest hour.

'Twas the demon Mahishasura that she sought,
And he couldn't hope to evade her sharp eye.
Alone she stood, and his army of evil she fought,
With a ferocity her beauty did belie.

One by one, his hopeless allies did yield,
And Mahishasura was the sole demon left,
Ma Durga in her hands did still a trident wield,
Soon the asura was of his head bereft.

And so things returned to their rightful state,
Once more the gods and mankind were free,
And to this day we still gather and celebrate this great victory on the day of Dashami.

So as we rejoice with dhaaks and dhunochi,
The return of our Mother for another year,
Do not worry if ten days pass too quickly,
For the next Durga Puja will soon be here!

- Wribhu (4.9.2006)

A GIFT

I want to give you a gift that is special
A spoonful of sunlight
A thimbleful of human right
A small box full of undying love
A note from the cooing dove.

I want to give you a gift that is unparallel
A tiny speck of the rain and sky
A measure of truth without any lie
A memory of fond childhood dream
An inch of shiny dancing stream.

I want to give you a gift that is unique
The warmth of your mother's lap
A feeling of a very peaceful nap
An ounce of green grass and flower
A drop from soothing morning shower.

I want to give you a gift that is incomparable
A wisp of floating white cloud
An essence of innocence all round
A taste of sweetness of the purest honey
A mile of the most beautiful journey.

I want to give you a gift that is adorable
A spot of the full moon shimmering
A pinch of life, full of love & hoping
A handful of green and youthful springs
A chime from the bell that sweetly rings.

I want to give you a gift that is special
I want to give you a gift that is unparallel
I want to give you a gift that is unique
I want to give you a gift that is incomparable
I want to give you a gift that is adorable.

HKBA Winter Events 2006

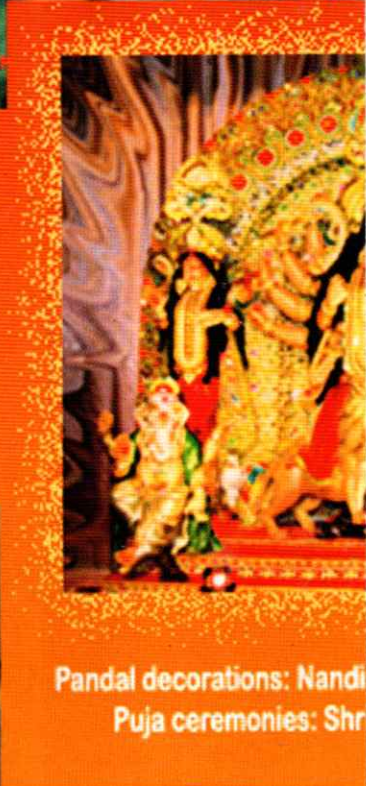

The winter of 2006 started off with the annual picnic at the beautiful Tai Tong Country Park, Yuen Long. Starting rather early on a somewhat misty wintry Sunday morning, the Bengalis decided to combat the cold by doing what they do best - eat non-stop! Through the day a flurry of activities was mostly directed towards appeasing the insatiable HKBA appetite. A game of cricket and a leisurely walk through the trail helped expend the calories.

At the Antaakshari Nite organised by the India Arts Circle, HKBA was represented by three of its members, Monidipa, Sujata and Ashis, who did us proud by going right up to the finals, narrowly missing out on the winners' prize.

Ma Saraswati and Music

Saraswati Puja 2006 was solemnised at the Hindu Temple. Our Meshomoshal, Shri Shyama Das Mukherjee, conducted the puja, which was extremely well-attended.

The Bijoya Dashami gathering of 2005 and the Nababarsha celebrations of 2006 (Bangla 1413) were held at the IRC, both in the form of musical evenings, mainly starring our local talents. The latter event was further enhanced by the presence of an invited band and an accomplished female lead singer, Smt. Ratna Mitra, from Kolkata. The music had the audience swinging to its rhythm.
